

SEMINAR SERIES: PSYCHOANALYTIC PSYCHOTHERAPY PRACTICE

In Kintsugi, a form of Japanese pottery... "The vicissitudes of existence over time... are represented in the break, knocks and shattering ..The art of repairing ..renders the object changed but 'whole' again."— Christy Bartlett

This seminar series will focus on the practice of psychoanalytic psychotherapy. It is designed for psychotherapists who have had some introduction to psychoanalytic psychotherapy and want to further their understanding. Reading material will be reviewed in each seminar and discussed along with relevant clinical material to highlight the theory.

VENUE: 231/29 Milton Parade MALVERN

DATES: Thursdays fortnightly

TIME: 4:30pm – 6pm

FEE PER TERM: $400

For more information please contact Rosalie Birkin, Psychoanalytic Psychotherapist, at rosalie.birkin@me.com