

SEMINAR SERIES: PSYCHOANALYTIC PSYCHOTHERAPY PRACTICE

In Kintsugi, a form of Japanese pottery... "The vicissitudes of existence over time... are represented in the break, knocks and shattering ..The art of repairing ..renders the object changed but 'whole' again."— Christy Bartlett

This seminar series will focus on the practice of psychoanalytic psychotherapy. It is designed for psychotherapists who have had an introduction to psychoanalytic psychotherapy by way of a tertiary level unit in the area, the VAPP Introductory Course or similar, and want to further their understanding. Reading material will be reviewed in each seminar and discussed along with relevant clinical material to highlight the theory.

FEE: $400 + GST for a series of five 90-minute seminars held fortnightly
